On Monday, February 27th the Executives Association of Long Beach networking group held their weekly business owners networking luncheon at The Grand. Jim Choura owner of The Grand Event Center, celebrating 41 years with the EALB, gave his classification talk on Events. This was also the final meeting for Jim's 3 term as President. Not only has he just completed two consecutive years as President, he was also President in 1990's. Jim's dedication and leadership to the Executives Association of Long Beach is very much appreciated by the members and Kellie Sherrill, the new Executive Director.

The Grand is part of the portfolio of businesses owned by the Choura family. Over 100 years ago Jim's father Jim Choura Senior moved to America and opened his first meat cutting business. Since 1916 the Choura's have owned businesses in the food and beverage and events industry without interruption. Today Jim's son Ryan Choura runs the event rentals business and Jim runs The Grand Events. Needless to say with 100 years of legacy, they are very good at what they do.

The Grand wants to host your next event, big or small, personal or business. They can accommodate groups with cultural necessities as well. Their catering is delicious and the staff is fantastic. The coordinators keep track of every detail in your contract and the servers attend to your every need throughout the event. Make your life simple and call Jim to book your next event.

The EALB meets at The Grand weekly for our networking lunches and the food and service are always top-notch. Thank you Jim for making the meetings delicious and comfortable. We always look good to prospective new members!
