On Monday, June 19th, 2017 the Long Beach Executives Association met for their weekly business to business networking lunch in Long Beach. This week's speaker was Jennifer Sawday, partner at TLD Law. Jennifer is on the EALB board of Directors and currently holds the position of Secretary/Treasurer and is our Membership Committee Chair. She has been a member since 2014 and holds the classification of Attorney - Estate Planning. She serves a wide range of clients in all matters related to probate, trusts, estate planning, conservatorships, guardianships and related litigation. She also handles pre and post death administration for clients serving as personal representatives, executors and trustees for trusts and estates.

Jennifer is married with 2 daughters and lives in Long Beach. Ms. Sawday is the President of the Estate Planning and Trust Council of Long Beach for a two year term from 2014 to 2016. She also recently completed her second term as President of Women Lawyers of Long Beach as she served in 2008 to 2009 and again for 2013 to 2014. Ms. Sawday also volunteers her time to cook quarterly at the Long Beach Ronald McDonald house, is on the board for the Los Altos YMCA and also assists from time to time with the local charity called Arts and Services for the Disabled.

Fun fact: Ms. Sawday has been selected for the third year in a row as the Best Wills and Trusts Attorney in Long Beach by the local Long Beach newspaper, the Beachcomber — for years 2014, 2015 and 2016!

Jennifer has more than thirteen years of legal practice experience. She drafts about two estate plans a week and her court practice includes about 30 active probates at any given time. Her experience and tenacity has allowed clients to have their court matters resolved as quickly as possible including obtaining orders to open and close probates quickly as possible given the statutory time periods. Ms. Sawday also works with clients to handle trust administration and contested matters involving wills and trusts.
