MEMBER FOCUS TALK

Our newest member Corey Vane of Athrone spoke at the Executives Association networking lunch. Corey was brought in by Kris Gragson.

Corey was recently married, bought a house and just got a Yellow Labrador puppy for Christmas! He earned his Bachelor's in Environmental Studies from Redlands University. He had many jobs leading up to his current position as operations manager for his Grandfather's company A-Throne, Co. During his time with the company sales have increased 25%!

A-Throne was started in 1981, currently has 35 employees and 24 trucks. Their primary market is construction but they also do special event rentals for happenings such as Coachella, the Olympics, Long Beach Grand Prix, LA Marathon, Grammy's parties, Super Bowl parties, weddings, Bud Light's "Up for Whatever", commercial and movie filming and more. On the construction side a good referral would be to general contractors, pavers, roofers and demo crews.

They rent fencing, port-a-potties, VIP trailers, executive trailers, portable sinks, and more. If you are having an event or doing construction you need A-Trone. The can also provide restroom attendants if needed for an additional fee.

Thank you to Dr. Chang for hosting the EALB at his office in December for a Membership Showcase event. We had a great time and can all agree you have a beautiful office and wonderful staff.
